Subject: Graduate Program Review Report/HEC Findings

Respected Madam,

HEC has shared the Graduate Program Review (GPR) report. According to the Findings, FURTHER INTAKE STOPPED for the following Four Departments has been suspended for only one Year due to exceeding the allowed student enrollment limits.

1. Ph.D Political Science
2. Ph.D Computer Science
3. Ph.D Pakistan Study
4. Ph.D History

LIMITED SLOTS WILL OPEN UP with the approval of Competent Authority for the following four programs will open up limited available seats for admission 2025-26 according to the student teacher ratio by HEC.

5. M.Phil Inorganic Chemistry
6. M.Phil Analytical Chemistry

A total of 137 M.Phil students in four specializations enrolled in Fall 2023-24 are expected to submit their thesis by July-August 2025, which open up new slots. It is recommended that the admission intake for the Fall semester 2025-26 be aligned with the existing faculty strength of the Chemistry department, i.e., 31 faculty members. Accordingly, the department may enroll a total of 125 M.Phil and Ph.D students in order to maintain the student-teacher ratio as per HEC guidelines.

7. M.Phil Physical Education

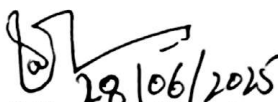

Physical Education will open up 18 seats for M.Phil program.

8. M.Phil Applied Linguistics

Applied Linguistics will open up 35 seats for M.Phil program.

In Addition, the Ph.D Arabic Program has been HALTED till fresh approval. This is due to having only two Ph.D faculty members, while the minimum required is three. It is noted that the Research Assistant (Imam Sb.) was not considered toward this faculty Requirement.
